We are only funded through the generous support of community-minded companies, foundations, and caring individuals who support special events like Paws, Claws, and Corks.

HUMANE SOCIETY OF WEST MICHIGAN IS 100% DONOR FUNDED

We receive no funding from government or national animal welfare organizations. Your support makes it possible for Humane Society of West Michigan to offer the following services:

-  A comprehensive adoption program that matches nearly 4,000 homeless animals annually with new families and provides follow-up and support to ensure successful placements
-  Lifesaving medical care for nearly 5,000 animals annually
-  Educational programs for over 1,000 children designed to teach compassion, respect, and responsible care for animals
-  Intervention programs for children to end neglect and abuse and break the link between violence against animals and humans
-  Expansive behavior department which enriches our animals stay with us and also provides counseling for resolving pet issues by strengthening the bonds between pets and their caregivers
-  Behavior classes for dogs and puppies as well as informational seminars about a wide range of animal-related topics
-  An innovative Community Resource Program including a pet food bank, vaccine clinics, and temporary emergency pet housing for animals from families experiencing significant financial or situational hardship

HUMANE SOCIETY OF WEST MICHIGAN IS excited to celebrate the eleventh annual Paws, Claws, and Corks event in 2023! With this milestone, and the opportunity to be back in person, we are re-launching the event with a new look and feel, but with all of the features that guests have grown to love over the years.

This extravagant evening will feature fabulous cuisine, fine wines, and an opportunity to bid on amazing experiences and packages in both our live and silent auctions.

The funds raised will directly benefit Humane Society of West Michigan in our mission to promote the humane treatment and responsible care of animals in West Michigan and beyond.
